Restaurant Dorfstuben

Here we find the culinary traditions of yesteryear in the two dining rooms of the restaurant:

The Uhrenstube: the pendulum room.

The Förster-Jakob-Stube: the forest-guard Jakob's room.

In these two rooms, furnished in the purest Black Forest tradition of the 19th century, you can savour the finest traditional produce of the area: bacon crêpes, smoked ham, Cervelas salad from the Murg valley and "Spätzle", the famous home-made pasta... not to mention the famous Black Forest gâteau with its whipped cream, chocolate and preserved cherries.

The Restaurant Dorfstuben is open daily from 11 am.

Restaurant Kaminstube

Light, classical, European cuisine. The opportunity to taste wines from Baden-Württemberg or Alsace.

In summer, the Kaminstube serves food on a very pretty terrace brimming over with flowers and fragrances.

And, in winter, guests can enjoy a delightfully cosy atmosphere around the open fire.

The Kaminstube is open daily for lunch and dinner.

Just some of its specialities:

Variation of goose foie gras with pear and portotto - Sautéed langostinos with polenta cedro lemon and crustacean cream - White halibut poached in olive oil with black salsify and balsamico sauce.

Open from Wednesday to Sunday inclusive.

Closing dates 2016: 13. February – 10. March and 24. July – 25. August.

Dish: from € 32

Mountain refuge « Sattelei »

Chalet "Sattelei" is about one hour's walk from the Hotel Bareiss. It is open all year round from 11am to 5 pm.

Morlokhof Farm : back to the traditions of yesteryear

The name “Morlokhof” means “the farm of the Morlok”, a dynasty of healers who used natural methods and whose cures were highly-regarded in the region. They were also known for their gift of clairvoyance.

The Hotel Bareiss organises guided visits to the “Morlokhof” during which the history of the farm is recounted.

The chefs from the Hotel Bareiss bake bread in the bakehouse just as they did in the olden days, over a wood fire.

When Hermann Bareiss bought this centrepiece of Mitteltal’s cultural heritage, his aim was to revive ancient traditions and to bring back certain values: painstaking manual work, care for the environment, the medicinal use of plants and natural products...

The farm was also to become the setting for a cultural centre: concerts, literary soirées, exhibitions and roundtables.

Restaurant facilities were added as it’s an ideal place to hold family reunions and to celebrate special occasions...

Hermann Bareiss took his endeavours further still when he decided to reintroduce to the nearby pastures some of the oldest breeds of cattle in the Black Forest.

A special treat for lovers of fine meats who are henceforth assured of eating the very best there is at the Hotel Bareiss

The Bareiss Wellness & Spa

The Bareiss Beauty & Spa, with its various treatment rooms and fitness areas, offers you an exceptional opportunity to relax and feel good.

Hospitality, elegance and conviviality: the guiding principles of the Hotel Bareiss

In the words of Hermann Bareiss, the owner of the hotel:

“What we are most anxious to do is to offer the very best in terms of hospitality, to show just how versed we are in our profession and how proud we are to pursue it. For the hotel profession is a profession into which you must put your heart and soul, where you radiate human warmth, security and well-being. Our motto has remained unchanged over fifty years. For the guest “there’s no such thing as no”.

A smiling face, pride in working for this rural Relais & Châteaux, boundless enthusiasm, a determination to get it right ... Not to mention the very pretty traditional costumes worn by the young women at the Bareiss: a different costume for each day of the week.
